HAWTHORNE RACING.

A good crowd was out despite the cool weather. Betting was brisk and heavy throughout the day. Most of the finishes were hotly contested, three of them being won just at the wire.

Dan O'Brien sprung a good thing in Blenheim in the two-year-old race. The horse was said to have worked five-eighths of a mile with 116 pounds up in 1:02 flat. It was the first time he had ever faced the barrier, was backed for a good thing, being bet down from 20 to 8 to 1. Harry Beck was also backed heavily on the strength of his Latonia form. Both newcomers in this race ran one-two.

Charley Moore was ably handled by Winkfield in the first race. The colored jockey seemed to be able to get more out of him than Dominick did in his last race. Moses was backed for a good thing by a number of sharpshooters. He was handled to perfection, his race of the night before being only a "prep" for today's killing.

Espionage appeared stiff and sore when going to the post, but warmed up to her work after the first quarter had been run. Silurian had worked well and was backed by a number of the talent. There was a strong tip out on Johnny McCarty and a number of horsemen thought he couldn't lose. He lacked his sharp turn of speed usually shown in all his races at New Orleans last winter.

Dyona ran a fine race and showed a great deal of gameness in the run down the stretch but Fanny Wood tired and quit when the rub came and had all she could do to beat Johnny McCarty for second place.

J. Carroll's Catastrophe broke his leg and had to be destroyed.

HARLEM STAKES.

Horsemen already are looking forward to the renewal of the Austin Selling, the Petite, the Graduate and the M. Lewis Clark stakes at the Harlem Jockey Club's spring meeting. The last named race has come to be regarded as a good preliminary race for American Derby candidates, and in addition to the three-year-olds which already have made their debut this season on the local race courses such good ones as Royal Victor, Rolling Boer, Brutal, Articulate and His Eminence are entered.

The Petite and Graduate Stakes bid fair to bring out the best two-year-old class of each sex in the west, while the Austin Selling Stakes, won last year by Larkspur, then a three-year-old, with ninety-one pounds up, is always an interesting event.

Hereafter R. A. Hiller will be at Hawthorne each forenoon to take entries and otherwise serve horsemen who intend to race their horses at Harlem.

Winner—B. c. by El Rio Rey—Lady Dare.

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Rey Dare was eased up a sixteenth from home and before Stuart got him to going again had all but lost the race. He was much the best. Rosormonds closed with a grand rush through the last furlong after dropping back apparently beaten. She is nearly at her best. Byron Rose might have been a sharp contender with a stronger rider up. Prejudice dropped back after they had gone a half mile.

Rey Dare, show, out. Rosormonds, show, 3 to 5. Byron Rose, show, out. Prejudice, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Albert—Lorena Mac.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. McAlbert dropped back at the half mile ground but came again in the final furlong like a stake horse, just winning in the last stride. Dangerous Maid, suddenly improved, was not used as much at the post as the others and ran to her best form. Mocoito showed speed but did not stick it out as well as usual. Duckoy finished up fast. Good Hope was badly cut off at the half mile ground.

Scratched—25151 Wardman, 104.

Winner—B. g. by Russell—Active.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Prestidigator ran a good game race, finishing strongly under keen pressure. Racetto improved as suddenly as anything noted this season, was heavily backed and ran about the best race of his life. Flamaro showed an amazing turn of speed on the last turn but tired in the final sixteenth. Amasa and Jerid raced each other to exhaustion.

Scratched—25476 Hohenlohe, 117; 24600 Grand Sachem, 114; 25184 Gold Finder, 112.

Winner—Ch. g. by Abana—Bonnie Lass.
Went to post at 2:29. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next two driving. Ladas, off well, began quickly in front of a big and tangled field and was not worried. He was most lucky. Lady Curzon was badly ridden and the finish on her was weak. The Wag ran his race. Hansborough was interfered with and cut off and ran a good race. Crossmolina is improving. Virgie d'Or was too slow to begin. Hardly was almost left at the post.

Scratched—25103 Little Tommy Tucker, 91.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Sans Pareil II. ran the best race. She was bumped a lot in the early part and finished strong and true. O'Neil saved a lot of ground at the stretch turn and stole up on the rail, winning in the last few strides. Helen Print has had the edge taken off her by previous hard races. This was not her race. King Daly ran an improved race under a good boy. Father Wentker died away when pinched. The weight stopped Old Hutch.

Went to post at 3:44. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive of two. Colonial Dame was beaten to the last jump, where Very Light fell. Colonial Dame is a safe jumper and will be a good one at the game when fit. She is yet short. Mr. Rose ran a fair race and fenced well. The weight stopped Eva Moe. Very Light ran a good race and jumped well. Johnston forced her too much at the last jump in fear of Colonial Dame. Zufallig was doing well when she bungled at the fourth jump. The boy fell off Happy Medium, who is a good jumper. Colonial Dame, show, 4 to 5. Mr. Rose, show, 2 to 1. Eva Moe, show, out. Very Light, show, 1 to 2. Zufallig, show, 2 to 5.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won in a fierce drive; second easily. Winkfield clearly outrode Mathews in the final strides. Charley Moore ran gamely and beat Merito on the post. The first two always held Isaline, who was not persevered with to any great extent. Scarlet Lily was well up at the last eighth but sprawled badly from there to the wire. The race should do her a great deal of good. Lee King was palpably outrun all the way and never had a chance. Merito displayed more gameness than she is credited with possessing. Charley Moore, show, 1 to 2. Merito, show, out. Isaline, show, 2 to 5.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; second easily. South Elkhorn had the speed of the bunch to the head of the stretch where a general closing took place with the exception of John A. Clarke who was always outrun. South Elkhorn cracked at the last eighth and Harry Beck looked a sure winner, but Mathews brought Blennenworth up with a rush on the inside rail and nailed him on the post. Red Hook stopped about the same place as South Elkhorn. Legal Maxim ran a fair race for his first start here and will do to watch. John A. Clarke appeared to be outclassed. It was the winner's maiden effort and he performed like a colt of fair class.

Just before entering the stretch McInerney gave the winner his head and he came away as if those back of him were tied. Knightbanneret with his big import ran an impressive race although he had all he could do to stave off Plead's determined rush on the end. Uncle Tom was pinned in against the inside rail about the last eighth or he might have had a chance to get third place. Impromptu, well up for seven furlongs, drizzled completely out in the final strides and ran far below his showing in his last race. Ida V. ran a short five furlongs and then fell out of it, finishing beaten off. Her race should not be taken seriously.

Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; the next three were driving. Etholin could have won further off if necessary. He was going away at the finish. Hindsdale made a bold bid at the head of the stretch, but did not have the necessary speed. The improving track was not the kind Albertvale likes. Fatherland ran a fair race. Winner—B. c. by Montana—Unadaga.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Five Nations was easily best and responded with a winning burst of speed when called upon a quarter out. Tchula displayed a superior order of speed and finished well, but her jockey was not competent to force her to her best. Benton Gray ran out as usual and finished on the extreme outside. Oclawaha has been well tried. Dandy West, off badly, showed a great burst of speed to the far turn, when he commenced to bear out and finally was pulled to a walk to avoid bolting into the outside fence. He is a fine looker and if cured of this bolting tendency will prove a useful colt.

Overweights—Five Nations, 1; Tea Varre, 2; Oclawaha, 3; Dandy West, 2 1/2.

Five Nations, show, 2 to 5. Tchula, show, out. Benton Gray, show, 2 1/2 to 1. Dandy West, show, 1 to 2.
